Call to Service Julie Turlington, Chaplain

Man asked life of Thee and Thou has gavest it him, even length of days forever and ever. His struggles in mortal combat are indicative of man's will to live. Let us recall that his influence can long outlive the life that sheds it, that much of this world's work has been done by the departed, that among all the forces of earth there is none more potent than that of those we call deceased.

Prayer Assembly (In Unison)

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the lord, we give Thee hearty thanks for the good examples of all those Thy servants who, having finished their course in faith do now rest from their labors. We beseech Thee to grant them continual growth in Thy love and service, and to give us grace to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of Thy Heavenly Kingdom, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Responsive Reading (Psalm 27: 4-6)

Chaplain: One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I require.

Response: Even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit His Temple.

Chaplain: For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in his Tabernacle.

Response: Yea, in the secret place of His dwelling shall He hide me, and set me upon a rock of stone.

Chaplain: And now shall He lift up mine head.

Response: Above mine enemies round about me.

Chaplain: Therefore will I offer in His dwelling, an oblation with great gladness.

Response: I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.
